

Strategic Review Committee Principles

1. Maintain the centrality of the liberal arts within its academic programs.
2. Maintain those programs and majors critical to the long-term economic stability of the College.
3. Provide resources that ensure academic credibility and integrity of programs and majors, consistent with the Mission Statement of the Strategic Plan.
4. Recognize how departments and programs increase the opportunities for intellectual, scholarly, and professional discourse for students and faculty.
5. Recognize and respond to external challenges and opportunities.
